Rahab's Haven Albany, Inc.

VISION

Our vision is to reach people with the Gospel of Jesus Christ; to minister to the whole person; to be the hands and feet of Jesus; and to help fellow believers use the gifts and talents that the Lord has given them in order to advance the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

MISSION

Our mission is to minister to those at risk or victimized by sexual exploitation.

HISTORY

Rahab's Haven has been reaching those at risk or victimized by sexual exploitation since the summer of 2018. It began with two women having a desire to reach their community with the Gospel of Jesus Christ through Backyard Bible Clubs. That summer, the Lord brought a wide range of people to the Backyard Bible Clubs; however, there was one particular population that continued to stick out: broken, hurting women who had no hope of the Savior. Some of the women were homeless, some struggled with substance addiction, some were caught in prostitution, and some of them just needed a friend to care and listen to their story. But ALL of them needed the hope and healing of Jesus Christ.

2018

Saw the need to make and distribute blessing bags of food and personal hygiene items for ladies we were encountering on the streets. Began driving around looking for the ladies to pray with, share the love of Jesus, and give a blessing bag to.

2019

Continued to hand out blessing bags and host summer Backyard Bible Clubs. Rhiannon quit her job in October in order to focus on the development of Rahab's Haven. Karma and Rhiannon went to training with Wellspring Living. Rahab's Haven was allowed to start using office space at the Hope Center (Coke Plant).

2020

Rahab's Haven became an approved 501c3 organization, joined Wellspring Living Institute Mentorship program, and developed a Board of Directors.

OBJECTIVES

Awareness

Rahab's Haven is committed to investing into the lives of those at risk of being sexually exploited and to educating the communities in southwest Georgia about sex exploitation.

Outreach

Rahab's Haven is committed to actively reaching out to those at risk or being victimized by sexual exploitation. This is done through street outreach ministry, Bible studies, life skill classes, one on one mentoring and working with local authorities.

Restoration

Rahab's Haven is committed to providing resources for women ready to escape the life of sexual exploitation. Our future goal is to have a safe house and a long term residential home.

CORE VALUES

Reach our region with the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Bring awareness about sexual exploitation.

Minister to the whole person.

Encourage other believers to use the gifts and talents the Lord has given them.

Servant Leadership, putting the needs of others first in order to show the love of Christ

PHILOSOPHY OF CARE

Rahab's Haven is an organization that seeks to serve all sexually exploited survivors with excellence and dignity. Our work is motivated by Christian faith and biblical principles. We desire to offer comprehensive services that will balance education, therapy, life-skills, career readiness and discipleship. We plan on doing this through a customized care plan for each participant to help balance services and measure progress.

CHARACTERISTICS OF RAHAB'S HAVEN PROGRAMS

Excellence in Comprehensive Service

Since our goal is to minister to the whole person, our programming is created to address the individual's physical, spiritual, emotional, and educational needs. We seek to provide the highest quality of services for our participants. We do this out of a heart to help instill dignity and hope for an abundant future.

Faith Based

Rahab's Haven is a faith based Christian organization that seeks to accomplish its mission with the heart of biblical principles and Christian service.

Community

Rahab's Haven believes that lasting life change best happens in a community. Volunteers often make a lasting impact on those we serve. This is done by being intentional on building relationships with our participants.

Individualization

Rahab's Haven believes that God has created each individual person with unique gifts and talents. Because of this, we desire to come alongside volunteers and participants to help grow in these gifts and talents. This may result in individualizing some of our programming.

Safety

Rahab's Haven strives to provide a safe environment for our participants. We believe that a safe environment is the beginning to helping our participants start to change, because of this it is vital that we protect the location of our programs and the identity of our program participants.

Strength- Based

Rahab's Haven is committed to using the Strength- Based Approach. Each participant has unique skills and strengths. We value noticing these strengths and understand that these strengths play a huge role in the participant's personal healing.

Trauma-Informed

Rahab's Haven believes all services should be trauma-informed. Understanding how trauma affects a person in the short and long term is an important part of caring for survivors appropriately. Using evidence-based practices in regards to trauma ensures that secondary damage is avoided during treatment. Behaving in a trauma-informed way also communicates honor and dignity to survivors.

Stages of Change

Rahab's Haven uses a Stages of Change approach. This approach takes into account that people go through a series of stages when they change their behavior. The Stages of Change describes five stages of readiness and provide a framework for understanding the change process: Pre-contemplation, Contemplation, Preparation, Action, Maintenance, and Relapse. This understanding can help participants, volunteers, and caregivers understand and expect that the road through recovery and healing is not a linear journey and may include steps forward and steps back.

VOLUNTEER PROGRAM

Rahab's Haven believes that volunteers are an essential part of the work of our organization and ministry. Volunteers help create healthy, long-term support for our participants and help provide diverse knowledge, experience, network and resource base. Volunteers also represent the mission and share the story of hope through Rahab's Haven. Many times volunteers will also experience a mutual transformation through participating in the life change of others.

Gender of Volunteers

Rahab's Haven welcomes both men and women volunteers. Men have the opportunity to share their skills and abilities in almost all areas of service. However, Rahab's Haven does require that any of our male volunteers be vigilant about not being alone with any female participants. This is to protect both participants and volunteers.

Background Checks

Rahab's Haven volunteers are required to complete a criminal background check before they begin their volunteer duties. Volunteers are required to pay the processing fee for the background check.

The results must include National, Statewide (GA), and Social Security Number criminal checks, and must provide evidence that it was completed within the last 2 years. This can be submitted to the Volunteer Coordinator for review.

Motor Vehicle Record (MVR) Check

Any volunteer seeking to provide transportation for participants is required to have a Motor Vehicle Record (MVR) Check. MVR Checks processing fee is expected to be paid by the volunteer. Volunteers are allowed to only have two moving violations within a two year time period in order to be approved to serve in this role. We conduct annual Motor Vehicle Reports for those serving in this role. In the event that more than two violations are found, it will result in termination of volunteer services for the transportation role.

Under Section 612 of the Fair Credit Reporting Act, volunteers have the right to have a copy of their background check and motor vehicle check results. If a volunteer desires a copy, they must submit a written request with a signature to the Volunteer Coordinator. Rahab's Haven will provide an electronic and/or paper copy after a written request is received.

Under Section 611 of the Fair Credit Reporting Act, volunteers also have the right to dispute with the background check-reporting agency the accuracy or completeness of any information in the report. Rahab's Haven does not handle background check disputes. For questions or concerns about items listed on your background check, volunteers must contact the background check agency.

Sign-In Policy

All volunteers must sign in and out each time they volunteer. A volunteer log book will be kept on site. Ask your assigned staff member.

Volunteer Cancellation Policy

Volunteers fill a very critical role for Rahab's Haven. If you are unable to attend a scheduled workday, or if you know that you will arrive late, please contact your Volunteer Coordinator by phone as soon as possible.

Volunteer Safety

You and Rahab's Haven share responsibility for establishing and maintaining a safe work environment. Rahab's Haven will ensure a safe work environment and will comply with federal, state, and local safety regulations. In turn, you are expected to obey safety policies and to exercise caution in all of your volunteer activities. You are asked to report any unsafe conditions to your staff contact immediately. Any accident, which results in injury, regardless of how insignificant, must be reported promptly to your Volunteer Coordinator and/or assigned staff member.

TRAINING REQUIREMENTS

Foundational Training

Rahab's Haven desires to empower volunteers with the knowledge and skills needed to serve, interact with and advocate on behalf of our survivors. All new individuals and groups of volunteers who desire to serve within our programs are required to attend our foundational training. Volunteers that apply strictly for facilities maintenance, events, or single day of service opportunities are exempt from the training requirement. The Volunteer Coordinator oversees the training and provides support to volunteers throughout the process. Foundational training is tailored to the needs of each specific program.

Mandated Reporter Training

Volunteers participating at our Safe House and Residential Program will be required to attend mandated reporter training. This course is designed to help Georgia mandated reporters recognize the signs of child abuse and neglect, their legal obligations related to reporting suspected abuse and neglect, and how to make a report. This is a yearly certification.

Ongoing Training

Rahab's Haven will provide ongoing training with the purpose to empower and enrich our volunteers with knowledge and skills that are effective in helping achieve our mission. Volunteers are strongly encouraged to attend ongoing training opportunities. Volunteers must attend at least one "ongoing training" session per year in order to remain an active volunteer.

Volunteers will occasionally receive promotional emails with information about relevant training opportunities facilitated by community partners. We encourage volunteers to personally pursue educational opportunities related to sex trafficking prevention, intervention and restoration. A volunteer's educational growth in these topics will enhance their ability to serve more effectively.

THINGS TO EXPECT WHEN VOLUNTEERING

Not all of our participants are with us for the same reasons.

- ❖ Most survivors have experienced childhood abuse, which led them into various life choices and painful situations. Each participant is a survivor.
- ❖ Survivors did not have a choice nor did they consent to the abuse they suffered.
- ❖ Please avoid making generalizations about why they are participating in Rahab's Haven programming.

Participants initially will be guarded and it will take time to warm up to you.

- ❖ Please be patient and allow participants to decide when they feel comfortable opening up to you.
- ❖ It's great to initiate small talk and light conversation. Don't take it personally if participants don't open up immediately.
- ❖ Our participants are learning how to develop and maintain healthy boundaries in relationships. Please keep this in mind when interacting with them.
- ❖ Survivors have the choice to share their story, and should not feel pressured to share it.
- ❖ Everyone has a different comfort level concerning physical touch and personal space. Please always ask participants before initiating physical touch.
- ❖ Please do not be offended if survivors decline physical touch or do not open up to you. Remember, you came to serve and it's not about you.

Participants' moods and demeanor are expected to fluctuate.

- ❖ In addition to that fact that our participants are women, they are also addressing very serious and painful trauma and issues while in our program.
- ❖ The women are working through individualized goals in order to process and address past trauma and hurts. Because of this, day-to-day life can be very stressful and emotional.
- ❖ Please be patient and encouraging with each individual's process.

Participants will eventually leave the care of Rahab's Haven.

- ❖ Transition may include a participant's successful completion of the program, a voluntary departure, or a dismissal.
- ❖ We understand that ending these important relationships can be difficult; however, we ask that you respect our staff's role in facilitating the transition process and that you continue practicing healthy boundaries.
- ❖ If you find yourself struggling with a participant transition, please reach out to the Volunteer Coordinator to help process your thoughts and feelings.

Since employees and volunteers represent Rahab's Haven and are in a position of a role model, it is important that all employees and volunteers set an example of the Christian life before others. Rahab's Haven expects employees and volunteers to:

- ❖ Regularly attend church.

This is a 24/7/365 day commitment. Subsequently, employees and volunteers will be held accountable by Rahab's Haven for any negative behavior. I understand and agree that, if any part of this agreement is violated for any reason, volunteering with Rahab's Haven may be terminated by Rahab's Haven.
